

Business

WTC is new Chamber member

Coalition Coordinator/Substance Abuse Prevention specialist Kelly Felton (middle right) is presented a framed "First Business Dollar" by Chamber Executive Director Cindy Wannarka. Also pictured are Coalition members Mar Kuha (front right) and Mark McKenna (back center), and Ambassadors (from left) Vonnie Beckman, Heather Potter, Chamber Assistant Executive Director Char Moore and Ambassador Willard Arends. Photo by Diane Chmielewski

Published: Wednesday, November 10, 2010 11:37 AM CST

The Working Together Coalition is a new member of the Leech Lake Area Chamber of Commerce.

The Working Together Coalition is a group of concerned community members who would like to see a safe and healthy community free of the impacts of substance abuse and its negative effects. The organization works to prevent substance use by area youth through community collaboration, resulting in an improved quality of life.